

August 2017

Greetings from your pastor and partner in ministry!!

We made it through the hottest month in Nebraska, and not just temperature-wise. Last month was a busy month with the community service, barbershop choir service, VBS presentation service, semiannual meeting, and summer camp, not to mention all the fun at the three local county fairs. What a burst of life and activity! If only God would bless our farmers with a little more rain, I think we'd be a pretty content congregation.

But we mustn't let our contentment lead to complacency. Our financial giving has dropped these last few months and we struggle to meet our financial demands. I want to remind everyone that we have incorporated a new giving option these last few months: electronic giving. I realize many of us take a break from regularly attending service but that doesn't mean we ought to take a break from our regular giving. The ministry keeps plugging away just as God keeps plugging away at providing all our blessings. God blesses us with these hot, summer days of relaxation and recuperation. God blesses us with the time and resources to take advantage of them. God blesses us with our health and family and friends and work and rest. Because He blesses us with all these things and many more, day in and day out, we mustn't get lax in giving back to him. We have nothing without God's good and abundant grace and mercy. Please consider your giving and whether it adequately reflects your gratitude for all your blessings.

Our kids are returning to school this month which means we need to start planning for the program year kicking off next month. I'm going to try and meet with all our committees this month to make sure everyone is on the same page. I see we're in need of Sunday school teachers so if you're interested please talk with either me or our new superintendent, Jana Muehling. Keep an eye out for our congregational picnic that all are invited to. Before long, Liz Poessnecker will be scheduling photo sessions for our new congregational photo directory.

God is good and steadfast in his love for us. Let us be good stewards of all that he has blessed us with.

Many blessings,

Pastor Koos

Pastor's Report
July 2017

It's been a quick month since last I reported. Hard to believe that the kids will be heading back to school in a month! I'll miss taking the kids to the pool practically every day. What a gift to help us stay cool in these hot days of summer.

I haven't been around the church much in the last month and when I have been the ministry has been rich and fruitful. I was able to make 5 visits, lead 6 worship services including both chapel services at the care centers and a graveside service for Elaine Erdmann, participate in 1 committee meeting, guide 2 bible studies, attend 1 pastors text study and 1 men's bible study. I think the 3 special services (joint service w/Soap Creek, 4th of July community service, and Barbershop choir service) were especially meaningful for a lot of people. What great opportunities for outreach to the larger community! Thank you to all those who helped serve, clean up, and provide meals for both the community picnic and potluck meal. I felt the mission trip to the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota was a powerful experience for our youth and adult leaders. Between painting/scraping houses, playing with kids, preparing meals, worshipping, discussing, and listening to speakers, we all left with wonderful memories and a greater awareness of the Lakota hopes and struggles. Thank you for keeping us in prayer and helping to support our trip! And thank you for letting me get away to attend the annual national convention for Benedictine oblates (honorary monks) in Duluth, MN. My personal spiritual growth was enriched by the gathering of disciplined brothers and sisters in Christ. I look forward to developing the new relationships.

Many blessings,
Pastor Koos

Bible Study Questions
Wednesdays, 8:30 a.m.
August 2017

08-09-17 Matthew 14:22-33

1. In this passage we see Jesus immediately made the disciples get into the boat after the miracle of feeding the five thousand, despite knowing they would encounter a great storm (verses 20-22, 24). Why do you suppose God allows us to do things when He knows we are going to face storms?
2. What "crowd" did Jesus dismiss, verse 21? Why did he dismiss them John 6:15? How might this explain why Jesus immediately made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him?
3. How far out were the disciples? John 6:19 How does this add to the miracle?
4. This is not the first time the disciples have been shown that Jesus is in control even of the water. When was this shown before? What do they have in common? How are they different?
5. Peter was able to walk on the water because he had faith in Jesus' word to come. Why did he then begin to sink?
6. What are some examples of how we let doubt overcome our faith?
7. What two choices did Peter have when he began to sink?
8. What does it say of His faith that Peter called on Jesus to save him? What would you do?
9. What are some of the storms people commonly experience? What are the causes of these storms?
10. How can you experience Jesus' calm in the midst of the storms of life?

08-16-17 Matthew 15:10-28

1. Why is this story so shocking?
2. What business did Jesus have in the land of the Gentiles if He came specifically for the house of Israel?
3. How is the woman's plea similar to that of Peter as he sank after first walking on the water? How is Jesus' response different?
4. Why did Jesus not initially answer her, in verse 23?
5. Who are the dogs?
6. She calls Him "Lord, Son of David." Why is this surprising? What does this tell us about the woman?
7. Who does the woman represent?
8. After being rebuffed by Jesus, what was significant about the woman's response?
9. What moved Jesus to grant the Canaanite woman's request?
10. What does this story teach us about faith?

08-23-17 Matthew 16:13-20

1. To you, what is the best place to confess your faith—a church, a public setting, to your family, or where?
2. Why do you suppose people are so willing and able to give their opinions, even when they have no idea about what the facts and truth are?
3. What did it take for Peter to boldly step up with his declaration, and not adhere to the opinions of the crowd?
4. What would be the reason for Jesus to take the practice of faith out of just being a Temple thing and bring it to the daily places of life? Why would this be so threatening to the leaders?
5. Would people you know want to learn the real truth if they knew their beliefs were wrong? Or, would they not care, desiring to stay in their wrong beliefs?
6. Death itself shall not stop us who are in Christ! How can this fact give you confidence to live the Christian life, and make Christ known with more passion and distinction?

7. How did this passage become great words of hope and comfort for the soon to be persecuted Church? How can you receive hope from this passage?
8. Why did Jesus first use the term "Church" to mean a remnant community, as in small yet purposeful, instead of the term to mean a gathering of people? How do you define Church from this passage?
9. What do you need to do to feel confident in remaining in His truth and not follow what the crowds have to say?
10. How can you make faith your own, and not just an idea, or what you do, or where you go to church?

08-30-17 Matthew 16:21-28

1. If you could gain the whole world, that is, have anything you want, what would that be? What would this do to your personal life, spiritual growth, and relationships?
2. Why do you suppose Peter, who had just boldly proclaimed his faith, quickly forgot it? Have you done this? If so, how, and why?
3. What would cause Peter to think he needed to protect Jesus?
4. To you, what would be considered extreme discipleship?
5. Peter publicly criticized his Teacher-a cultural "no-no." Why would he do this? If you had been there, what would you have done?
6. How, and why, does sin cause a person, you, for example, to lose his or her way? Why is sin more attractive than the eternal Truth and Way of God?
7. What does the committed Christian need to do to remain on His Rock, our foundation? What do we need to do so we do not become stumbling stones?
8. Explain what deny himself has meant to you? What should it mean; what can it mean?
9. What is your greatest struggle in surrendering and being more committed to Christ as Lord?
10. What does take up the cross mean to you? What should it mean? What can it mean?
